

FILIPINOS DO HOMAGE TO MEMORY OF RIZAL, MARTYR OF PHILIPPINES

One of Many Floats in the Rizal Day Parade at Manila, Showing a Statue of the Filipino Patriot and Martyr.

Manila, P. I. — Inhabitants in all parts of the Philippine islands paid homage recently to the memory of Jose Rizal, Filipino patriot, who died a martyr to the cause of his people.

A parade six miles long passed through the streets of Manila on Rizal day. It was reviewed by high government officials and members of the Philippine senate and house of representatives, who witnessed the procession from a stand erected over the spot where Rizal was shot in 1896 by order of the Spanish government.

Pres. Woodrow Wilson and Congressman Wm. Atkinson Jones of Virginia, author of the Jones bill granting autonomy in the Philippines, were likewise honored.